

Tramonto d'Oca

Poggio Bonelli

Poggio Bonelli is located in the southern part of the Chianti Classico region, near Siena. They are focused on the production of Sangiovese and award-winning Supertuscan varietals, but what makes them truly special is the perfect combination of sustainable agriculture, authentic and straightforward style, and the best practices in the vineyards and cellars.

Still

Red

Tuscany

Toscana IGT

2010

Petit Verdot

Aging

18 months in French oak

Description

Tramonto d'Oca is one of the wines that represents Poggio Bonelli at the height of its expression. The strict selection of the grapes and the constant care that accompanies the wine in the cellar forge a fascinating, unique product, displaying a characteristic ruby red color with garnet hues