Durin

Durin was the nickname of Antonio Basso's grandfather who was the founder of this family farm. Today, Antonio and his wife Laura continue to preserve the old traditions and tastes of the land, while pursuing a meticulous and comprehensive selection process in order to maintain a symbiosis of natural elements.

Description

Ruby red color. Ample, intense, persistent nose, with hints of rose, strawberry, raspberry and cranberries. The flavor turns out dry, sapid but discreetly soft, pleasantly warm, and of a balanced structure, continuous, with delicate tannins
