

Taburno

Masseria Frattasi

Eco-sustainability has always been a driving factor for the Cecere and Clemente families who have produced wines here since 1576. From the magnificent natural scenery to the volcanic soil of Bonea on the towering Taburno mountain, Masseria Frattasi produces its wines with an intense attention to the territory and the environment.

Still

White

Campania

Falanghina del
Sannio Taburno DOP

2016

Falanghina

Aging

stainless steel tanks

Description

Straw yellow color, with fruity sensations and notes of citrus, pear, apple together with floral features of broom and hawthorn. Taburno is suave, soft, pulpy