

Noto

A young, dynamic team is nurturing ancient tradition here in Noto-Pachino, in the southeastern tip of Sicily. The winery focuses mainly on the biodynamic cultivation of native vines of the region: Moscato di Noto and Nero d'Avola. And its mission is to work in harmony with mother nature to produce wines free from chemicals that present a true expression of the territory in which they are born.

Still

Red

Sicily

Noto Rosso DOC

2013

Nero d'Avola

Aging

12 months in 6000 L large casks

Description

From Nero d'Avola grapes, the nose presents fine notes of fruity and floral spices, the taste is full, sapid, and fresh, with a sweet and round finish