

Il Montignano

Leonucci

In the core of Umbria, Stefano Leonucci grows Sagrantino and Merlot and has freed himself from any appellation in order to make his "vino da tavola" which is anything but.

Sagrantino

Aging

The wine goes into second use barriques where it remains for a period of 12 months

Description

Deep purple color. On the nose aromas of plum, cherry, hints of earth, cinnamon and a hint of smoked wood. In the mouth cherry and raspberry along with leather notes. Soft, dry tannins. Notes of bitter chocolate and nutmeg complete the warm and savory aftertaste
