

Rosso di Montalcino

La Magia

Since emigrating to La Magia in Montalcino from northern Italy in 1979, each generation from 1979 has contributed to renew, enrich and develop the wine estate. Owner and winemaker Fabian Schwarz and his team are proud to share in the heritage of this beautiful area where one of the world's most famous and sought after wines, Brunello di Montalcino, is made.

Still

Red

Tuscany

Rosso di Montalcino
DOC

2014

Sangiovese

Aging

9 months in used 500 L French oak

Description

Produced from the same grapes as our Brunello, but with a different vinification process and aged for only six months in 'third use' casks, this youthful wine possesses personality in abundance, typified by lively fruit and a fresh appeal that makes it suitable for all occasions, formal and informal