Cantina di Negrar

Since creating the first Amarone in 1936, generations of grape growers have tended their vineyards and handed down the region's history and culture on behalf of Cantina Valpolicella Negrar. They share in the pride and joy of belonging to a cooperative winery staffed by people who love their home and make wine by emulating the tradition and beauty of this generous region.

Description

Ruby red color with garnet hues. Spicy aroma with hints of vanilla and amarena cherries. Soft and round with gentle tannins that blend seamlessly with the wine's texture. A long, spicy finish completes the wine profile
