

Barolo Altenasso

Cavalier Bartolomeo

In the heart of the zone of Barolo, one will find Dario Borgogno's estate "Cavalier Bartolomeo." Here, Dario masters his Barolo according to the old traditional style and techniques, as well as his grandfather's family values of patience and continuous attention to the vineyard.

Still

Red

Piedmont

Barolo DOCG

2012

Nebbiolo

Aging

2 years in small and large casks

Description

Dario Borgogno has the monopoly of the Atenasso's crus, producing only 9000 bottles. A ruby garnet color, with a nice texture, rich, spicy offering, revealing aromas of black fruit like ripe cherries and violet. The nose also presents cedar, truffle and some balsamic notes. Full-bodied, intense, moderate tannins. It can be drunk now and over the next 10-12 years