

La Solista Barbera d'Asti

La Caudrina

For the father of Enotria founder Andrea Fassone, Romano Dogliotti was always considered "the king of Moscato". Today, Romano runs La Caudrina with the help of his sons Alessandro, Marco and Sergio, as well as the gentle touch of his wife, Bruna. He oversees every step of the production phase, just as passionately as in the 1970s when he began to bottle and sell his Moscato.
